Pollution Prevention: Region 5 Hazardous Substance Reduction on the Path to Greener Chemistry
U.S. Environmental Protection Agency
Lake Michigan Room (12th Floor)
77 West Jackson Blvd., Chicago, Illinois
December 9, 2013

Agenda:
9:30 - 10:00 Registration and Networking

10:00 - 10:10 Opening Remarks
Michael Harris, Deputy Director, U.S. EPA Region 5 Land and Chemicals Division

10:10 - 10:15 Course Overview
Christine Anderson, Pollution Prevention Coordinator, U.S. EPA, Region 5

11:15 – 12:00 Using GLRPPR to Identify Hazardous Substance Reduction Resources (Laura Barnes, Illinois Sustainable Technology Center)

12:00 – 1:00 Lunch

1:00 -1:45 Green Industrial Performance through Waste Minimization (Dan Marsch, Illinois Sustainable Technology Center)

1:45 - 2:30 Hazardous Substance Reduction through Best Management Practices: MnTAP Case Study Examples (Laura Babcock, University of Minnesota)

2:30 -2:45 Break

2:45 - 3:30 Targeting Chemicals of Concern and Industrial Sectors (Laura Babcock, University of Minnesota)

3:30 - 4:15 Using the Toxics Release Inventory Pollution Prevention Data Tool (Daniel Teitelbaum, U.S. EPA, HQ)

4:15 – 5:00 Group Discussion and Wrap Up